followed by dinner and a presentation by Katarina Gårdfelt

Katarina Gårdfeldt : Docent, Kemi- och Bioteknik, Oorganisk Miljökemi

Min forskning handlar om global spridning och omvandling av kvicksilver i miljön och hur klimatförändringarna påverkar detta. Forskningen syftar delvis till att förstå processer havsvatten och is som har betydelse för gasutbyte mellan hav och atmosfär och solljusets inverkan på dessa. Jag har deltagit en rad större internationella forskningsprojekt och expeditioner i bland annat Arktis, på Medelhavet och Antarktis. Jag samarbetar med forskare i ett Globalt nätverk för kvicksilver studier, till exempel analyt och marin kemister, oceanografer och modellerare.
