

Anglo Swedish Newsletter November 2016

12 November 13.00-15.00 Poppy Day Tea – a traditional event

The poppy was adopted as the symbol of remembrance after the end of the first world war, when almost every family in the UK and Ireland still felt the raw grief of the time.

What we do: We drink tea, eat cake, talk English and collect money towards the veteran's charity. There will also be an auction and probably a book sale.

Haga Östergata 30B, at Haga Församlingshem 50:- free for kids. No booking, just turn up!

13 November Remembrance Day at Kviberg Cemetery.

Memorial service: 11.00 at St Andrew's Church, Hvitfeldtsplatsen 2.

Ceremonies at Kviberg commence at the British and Commonwealth War Graves at 12.45 p.m. continuing at the German War Graves.

The British Ambassador David Cairns will attend.

Attendants will be invited to a reception after the ceremonies

17 November. These Halcyon Days 19.00

Group visit to GEST Theatre at Chapmans Torg followed by the traditional cheese&wine.

Nominated Best New Play in Irish Times Theatre Awards 2012. This will be the Swedish premier of this play. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iUnn7oa3ITw>

After the play there will be a question and answer sitting with the cast

To book: write to Sharon events@angloswedish.se

Booking should be made no later than 9 November. Cost including cheese and wine is 200:- to be paid on site. Tickets only are 170:-

20 November 16.00 The Cripple of Inishmaan_

Group visit to Teater Huset in Möndal.

Play performed in English (<http://www.teaterhuset.nu/theatre-in-english-23212709>) by an international cast. This is a romp of a play, .bring your friends along for an evening of hilarity!.

To book: You can reserve tickets in advance from <http://www.teaterhuset.nu/kontakt/styrelse/biljetter-2-23217318>

Let us know if you are coming: write to John events@angloswedish.se

More details about our events and information about booking can be found at www.angloswedish.se

Family membership 150:- can be paid to Plusgiro 242700-3