

Anglo Swedish Newsletter November 2017

11 November 13.00-15.00 Poppy Day Tea

Afternoon tea with homemade sandwiches, cakes and three lotteries with fantastic prizes.
Haga Församlingshem, Haga Östergata 30 50 kronor per adult, children free

12 November Remembrance Day at Kviberg Cemetery.

Memorial service: 11.00 at St Andrew's Church, Hvitfeldtsplatsen 2.
Ceremonies at Kviberg commence at the War Graves at 12.45 p.m.

Attendants will be invited to a reception at Residenset after the ceremonies, by our new landshövding Anders Danielsson. If you wish to attend, please mail events@angloswedish.se

16 November 17.30 BREXIT TALK

Brexit UPDATE Town hall meeting with Ambassador David Cairns

Haga Campus, Sprängkullsgatan 25, Gothenburg Free admission but booking necessary !

(see enclosed invitation or write to events@angloswedish.se)

Theatre in English 7 December. Every Brilliant Thing

by Duncan Macmillan with Jonny Donahoe
Performed by Gary Whitaker Directed by Kristina Brändén Whitaker

Touching, funny and life-affirming play about depression and the lengths we will go to for those we love.
"Heart-wrenching, hilarious...possibly one of the funniest plays you'll ever see, full stop."- The Guardian

Group visit to GEST Theatre at Chapmans Torg followed by the traditional cheese&wine.
After the play there will be a question and answer sitting with the cast
To book: write to Sharon at events@angloswedish.se or call Birger 0739 308 339

Cost including cheese and wine is 200:- to be paid on site.

NTL Live

Group visits to theatre events at Bio Roy – we are usually a group of about 12 people.

20 Nov. 2017 Follies – Stephen Sondheims legendary musical

11 Dec. 2017 Young Marx – Comedy about Karl Marx and his wild youth in London

21 November 18.30 ELBA Book Club

To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee

More details about our events can be found at www.angloswedish.se

Family membership 150:- can be paid to Plusgiro 242700-3 payment now is valid also for the upcoming year 2018